This book is dedicated in honor of EDNA BRAY, my beloved mother

When the Church of England would not christen me because my Godfather was Scottish [Presbyterian], she searched for a church that would take me under its wing... it was the Methodist church.

*Kettlethorpe Methodist Church in Yorkshire, England, was where I learned about God and Jesus Christ, where my foundation in faith was established; it was the place my mother took me so that I could learn to whom I belonged and to be close to God.
I thank the good Lord for all my blessings and for allowing me to share my childhood, teen years, and adulthood with my parents.
My mother led me to God, and all I have learned I will try to live by, to build upon the foundation she began, and to continue it on into future generations.*

INTRODUCTION

The Catawba Circuit of the Methodist Episcopal Church, North Carolina Conference, was organized in 1885, with Rev. A. M. Lowe as Pastor. In 1890, at the Fourth Quarterly Conference, this same circuit became a part of the Western North Carolina Conference.

The Catawba Circuit consisted of five churches: Catawba, Bethlehem, Hopewell, Concord, and Pisgah Methodist Churches. One pastor served all the churches and, in turn, all five were responsible for his salary.

"At the 1888 Quarterly Conference, it was agreed to pay $625 salary to the circuit pastor (per year). Any presiding elder would receive $75. This tallied up the total disbursement to $700. Of that $700, Catawba paid $175, Concord paid $180, Hopewell paid $115, Bethlehem paid $110, and Pisgah paid $90. [Sherrill, Elizabeth B., RG, The Smyrna Society/Catawba United Methodist Church. Sherrills Ford, 1991].

In 1890, Center and Setzer's Chapel churches were added to the circuit. When in 1892 Setzer's Chapel congregation was dissolved, Bethel Methodist Church took its place. In 1902 Pisgah dropped out of the circuit, and at an unknown date to this author, Bethel left, leaving Catawba, Bethlehem, Concord, Hopewell and Center Churches.

On 29 January 1907, Mountain View Methodist Church was organized by Rev. E. Myers. This church seems to have been added to the circuit and its church roster is housed in the circuit book, but the roster only records from 29 January 1907 through May, 1910.

Many years passed before another major change was made to the circuit. In 1920 Center United Methodist Church became a part of a new circuit; and, in 1942, Bethlehem separated. The most important change to the circuit, however, took place in 1954 when Catawba United Methodist Church became a one-church charge.

The contents of this book are the result of pastors' recordings over the years with regard to their Methodist congregations within the Catawba Circuit. As was the case in many instances, one book was used for several churches within a circuit as one pastor ministered to all of the congregations within his realm, usually on a sermon rotation basis. For example, Rev. M. V. Sherrill's monthly appointments for the Catawba Circuit in 1887 were as follows:

*"Catawba - 1st Sunday at 11 o'clock A.M.
Bethlehem - 1st Sunday at 3 o'clock P.M.
Concord - 2nd Sunday at 11 o'clock A.M.
Hopewell - 2nd Sunday at 3 o'clock P.M.
Pisgah - 3rd Sunday at 11 A.M. & 1 P.M.
Hopewell - 4th Sunday at 11 o'clock A.M.
Concord - 4th Sunday at 3 o'clock P.M."*

The book begins with a list of the pastors, then moves into the register of marriages, then infant baptisms, followed by the church rosters for the various churches. Please refer to the Table of Contents for further details.

I do hope that this book is of some assistance to you in your ancestral search, and it has already proven itself to be a valuable "tracking device" to many people in its original form.

If any mistakes exist in this book, please know they were not intentional.
